The Prompt Was Never the Product

Two months and a 60-90% token cost drop later, here's what I built.

02

CLAUDE.md Is a System Spec, Not a Prompt

What the agent knows, what it avoids, what it checks by default. The most critical document in the project.

MOMENTUM

03

Hooks Are Wired In, Not Requested

Pre-commit checks. Post-edit validation. They fire deterministically because I engineered them to.

DECISION.POINT

04

MCP Connections Are Typed and Bounded

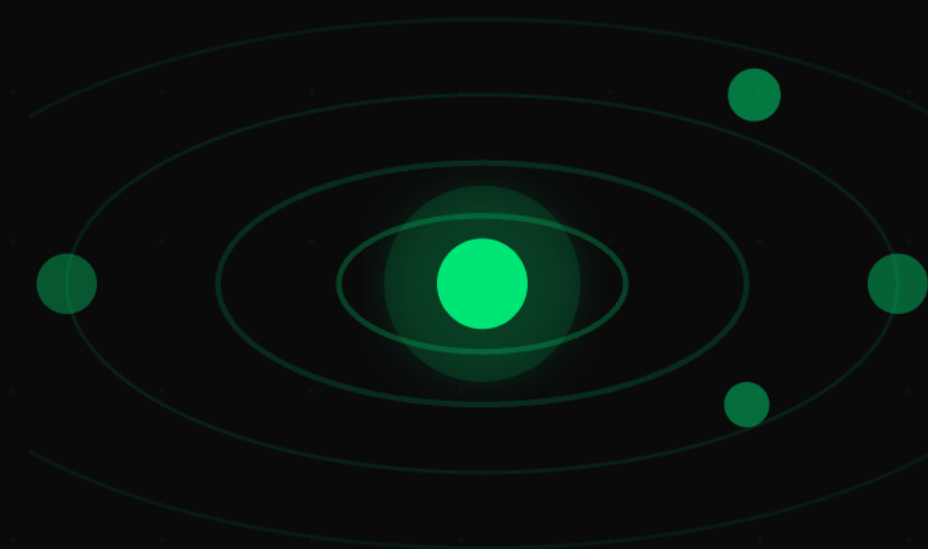

Not open-ended tool calls. Specific endpoints, tested paths. Reliability comes from specificity.

05 ·

The Shift: Prompt Engineer to Systems Engineer

How do I make this reliable at scale? That's a distributed systems question, not a prompting one.
