

Dental Practices Are Sitting On a $100K List

Hundreds of old patients are sitting untouched in your system. Reactivating them costs nothing in new marketing spend.

■ NO. 02 · REACTIVATION REVENUE

The Number Sitting in Your Patient Records

Reactivating 100 dormant patients generates 80 to 150 thousand dollars in first year revenue, with zero new marketing spend required.

■ NO. 03 · SEGMENTATION

Not Every Dormant Patient Is Dormant the Same Way

Segment by how long since their last visit. A 6 month gap responds to a different message than a 3 year gap.

■ NO. 04 · TOUCH CADENCE

Contact Attempts Follow a Specific Schedule

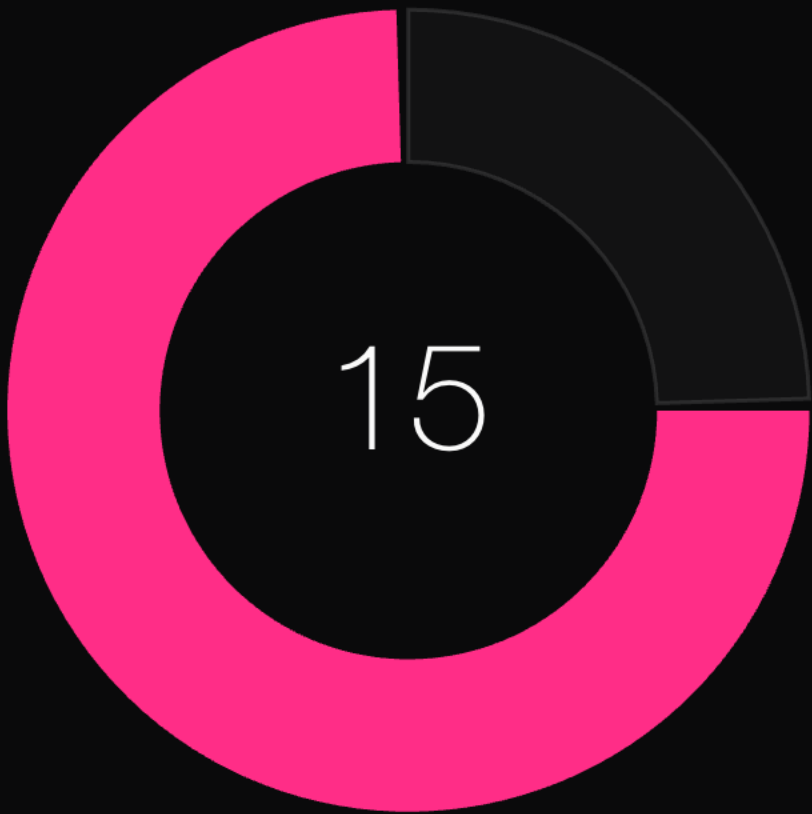

Four to five touches across phone, text, and email raise reactivation by 81 percent compared to one call that hits voicemail once.

■ NO. 05 · WIN BACK RATE

Programs That Work the List Beat Programs That Don't

Systematic reactivation wins back 10 to 20 percent of a dormant list annually. Practices without a program recover under 5 percent.

What Goes Into Every Touch in the Cadence

Every touch needs a specific reason to come back. Offer an exact time slot, not a vague invitation to call. If there is no response, switch the channel next time.
