

Toyota Didn't Replace Its Team. It Killed 100 Screens.

The scoping call behind every enterprise agent win

VERYDIAN AI

02

The agent replaced 50 to 100 mainframe screens

Not a department. One repetitive question: where is this shipment, and when does it land.

“Automate the whole department” cannot be scoped

Nobody can measure it and nobody can build it.
Find the single ugly process instead.

FOCUS.NODE

04

04

A client wanted onboarding automated end to end

We scoped it to one thing: intake data into the CRM, flagging incomplete submissions. Four days, not four months.

Agents are bad at judgment calls, great at repetitive lookups

Departments run on judgment. Screens run on repetition. Point the agent where it's strong.
